

Have Your Criminal Record Expunged

A new PA law allows persons convicted of a second- or third-degree misdemeanor, if at least 10 years have passed since they completed their sentence, to ask to appear before a judge and request an order for limited access to their criminal record: only criminal justice and government agencies would be able to see a person's entire criminal record.

Call or visit the Department of Court Records, Criminal Division. Fill out the forms to file a motion with the Department of Court Records to have your record expunged, and pay the filing fee of $100 at:
